TELEGRAPH.

Execution of the Modoc Prisoners.

JACKSONVILLE, OREGON, Oct. 3.-The correspondent of the Associated Press left Fort Kalmath this morning at 11.30 o'clock, and by hard riding arrived here late this evening with the following report of the execution of and Black Jim were led on the scaffold first and Schonehin next. They trod on it with apparent indifference, having evidently resolved to die as bravely as they have lived. Captain Jack went leisurely up the stairway, but looked wretched and miserable. The manacles had been struck off, but their arms were securely pinioned with cords. At precisely 9.45 a. m.

the interpreters, Capt. O. C. Applegate and David Hill, explained to the prisoners the nature of the order to be read to them by the Adjutant, and at ten o'clock Adjutant Kingsbury read the order promulgating the sentence of the commission and the President's order thereon with the orders of the Secretary and the Department Commander in the premises.

The two reprieved prisoners, Burncho and Slolux, stood on the ground in front of the scaffold shackled and under guard. During the reading the pinioned victims were seated on the platform of the scaffold with their feet on the drop listening anxiously, but, of course, understanding not a word of it. The reading occupied ten minutes, when the Adjutant read the order and commutation in the case of Buncho and Slolux, and the poor fellows were taken back to the stockade, evidently rejoiced at not accompanying the others to the happy hunting grounds. The Captain then offered an earnest and fervent prayer for the souls of the culprits, which was listened to attentively.

At ten o'clock and fifteen minutes the fatal nooses were placed around their necks under the direction of Captain Hoge. It was necessary to cut off a little of Captain Jack's long hair, which was in the way of the rope. Capt.

Hoge then bid farewell to the prisoners and black caps were placed over the heads of all the culprits. At ten o'clock and twenty min-Hoge's handkerchief. The bodies rung round and round, Jack and Jim apparently dying easily, but Boston and Schonchin suffering terrible convulsions. Boston and Schonchin repeatedly drew up their legs, but the others seemed to die almost instantly. At ten o'clock and twenty minutes their bodies were felt by Captain Hoge, and as this is being written they are swinging lifeless in the air.

As the drop feil with a terribly deadly thug four poor wretched human beings fell into eternity, and a half smothered cry of horror went up from a crowd of over five hundred Kalmath Indians who witnessed the awful spectacle. Wails of deep and bittter anguish went up from the stockade where the wives and children of the poor fellows had a fair view of the scene. The coffins, six in number had been placed directly in the rear of the gallows, two of them destined to be unoccupied as the order commuting the sentences of Buncho and Slolux only arrived at 10:30 o'clock last evening and preparations had been made for their execution with the others. An application was made this morning to General Wheaton by the Sheriff of Jackson county, Oregon, for the custody of the Indians indicted by the grand jury of
